HAVRE RESIDENT PUTS ACADEMICS TO WORK

MISSOULA --

Ben Sather, a University of Montana senior from Havre, participated in a fall semester internship program offered through UM's Center for Work-Based Learning.

The center provides opportunities for undergraduate and graduate students to integrate academic theories and principles with practical job experience related to their chosen fields.

Sather, a business administration major, worked at UM's Computing and Information Services, where he installed programs and assisted lab monitors. He is a 1998 graduate of Havre High School. His parents are Kathy and Terry Sather of Havre.

UM's Center for Work-Based Learning serves about 2,000 students each year. In 2001 the center placed 700 interns throughout Montana, the United States and overseas in more than 35 fields of employment. For more information, visit the center's Web site at www.umt.edu/internships.
